

PASTOR AND PEOPLE

The Minister's Summer Vacation is Now an Accepted Fact

TOPICS THAT WILL BE PRESENTED

In the Pulpits of Pittsburgh and Allegheny on the Coming Sunday.

CLEANING FROM CHURCH FIELDS

The time for ministers to vacate and regenerate on mountain excursions is here, and the churches of this day generally concede to their pastors this privilege.

Members, too, have no objection to swinging in hammocks and seeking cool shades these hot Sundays.

When the mercury travels above the nineties it is neither edifying to preach or to hear, and thus the preacher's vacation is acceptable all around.

MCDONALD'S DUSTERS.

Two Dry Holes Reported in That Famous Territory Yesterday.

SISTERSVILLE GETS A GOOD ONE.

Many Wells Being Finished Up in the Old Butler Districts.

MORE LUBRICATING IN LAWRENCE

A couple of dusters were reported in the heart of the old McDonald field yesterday. One is the Forest Oil Company's on the Rachel McGregor farm. It is located about two miles north of Oakdale, and joins the J. R. McMichael farm on the west.

Yesterday afternoon it was reported to be 15 feet in the first sand and dry.

The other duster belongs to Preston & Co. It is their No. 4 on the John P. Ewing farm, located a mile west of north from Oakdale and northeast of the Abraham Bell farm, which produced some big wells for Jennings, Guffey & Co.

The estimated production of the McDonald field fell off 500 barrels yesterday, and was given as 25,000. Forest Oil Company's No. 1 on the Kirk farm, southwest of the Metese well, was dropped from the list of those making 20 barrels an hour or better yesterday.

The McDonald Gauges

The following estimates were submitted by the gaugers of the Southwestern Pennsylvania Pipe Line Company:

The production of the field yesterday was 25,000 or 300 less than the day before. The hourly gauges were as follows: Lynch & Co.'s No. 1, Meise, 30; J. M. Guffey & Co.'s No. 7, Mackadek, 25; Brown, Robison & Co.'s No. 3, McMuray, 25; Oakdale Oil Company's No. 2, Morgan, 25; Forest Oil Company's No. 2, Campbell, 25; No. 1, McClelland, 25; Forest Oil Company's No. 3, Morgan, 25; Forest Oil Company's No. 3, Morgan, 25; Forest Oil Company's No. 3, Morgan, 25.

The stocks at the wells are reported at 50,000 barrels. The runs from McDonald's field are being cut by the following: Lynch & Co.'s No. 1, Meise, 30; J. M. Guffey & Co.'s No. 7, Mackadek, 25; Brown, Robison & Co.'s No. 3, McMuray, 25; Oakdale Oil Company's No. 2, Morgan, 25; Forest Oil Company's No. 2, Campbell, 25; No. 1, McClelland, 25; Forest Oil Company's No. 3, Morgan, 25; Forest Oil Company's No. 3, Morgan, 25.

The tools which have been sticking in the Mrs. Robb farm yesterday afternoon, and the Gordon sand yesterday afternoon, are being cut by the following: Lynch & Co.'s No. 1, Meise, 30; J. M. Guffey & Co.'s No. 7, Mackadek, 25; Brown, Robison & Co.'s No. 3, McMuray, 25; Oakdale Oil Company's No. 2, Morgan, 25; Forest Oil Company's No. 2, Campbell, 25; No. 1, McClelland, 25; Forest Oil Company's No. 3, Morgan, 25; Forest Oil Company's No. 3, Morgan, 25.

COLORED BAPTIST CONVENTION.

Officers Elected, and the Future of the Race Discussed.

The Sunday School Convention of the Allegheny Baptist Association, colored, was held yesterday forenoon and afternoon in the Silem Church, East End, Rev. Dr. G. A. Allen, presiding. The following officers were elected: President, I. Ubanks, of Allegheny; Secretary, Mrs. Luella Stewart, of Allegheny; Executive Committee, Mrs. Mary E. Edmonds and Mr. J. Evans. Speeches were made by the retiring and newly elected officers.

Rev. Dr. J. C. Payne then gave a lengthy address entitled "What We Can Do to Brighten the Prospects for the Future of our Race," in which he spoke of the need of education for the black man, and showed how the education of the present race would uplift the succeeding generations. A resolution was adopted protesting against the opening of the World's Fair on Sunday.

Rev. Dr. Parker gave a short address on the growth of the Church and its future. When the report of the Executive Committee was read reception was taken to that portion relating to the appointment of H. P. Parker last Friday as a missionary, the committee claiming that he had only been appointed temporarily. It gave rise to a long discussion, and the matter was referred to a special committee.

Will Not Vote for Grover

Erasmus Larnard Cleveland, a Pittsburgh cousin of ex-President Cleveland, says he will not vote for him in November, as he does not think that when President he treated his party right. He says that instead of retaining the money which he had continued in service those who had worked to defeat him and refused to recognize good Democracy. The President has not kept his promises, but poor in their fulfillment. Mr. Cleveland keeps a grocery store at the corner of Forty-fifth and Half street, Lawrenceville.

HER TENDER HEART TOUCHED

A Miss Who Came to the Rescue of an Abused Kitten

An attractive miss of about 19 summers strolled into the office of the Western Pennsylvania Humane Society yesterday afternoon, carrying in her hand a dainty white handkerchief which contained something alive. Approaching President Eaton she said she had a kitten which she wanted to turn over to the society for protection.

She said a number of boys were abusing it and she took it from them. President Eaton took charge of the kitten and it is now one of his household pets.
